All you have to do is download the ones you want, open them in PowerPoint and edit them as you want to suit your own needs. Here's a summary of websites where you can get the best PowerPoint templates for free and create awesome presentations. Best Websites for Free PowerPoint Templates Presentation MagazineBehance Slide Template Collection PowerPoint StyleshowetGoogle Slides TemplatesSlides TemplatesSlides Hunterfppt.com Presentation Magazine This website offers more than 67,000 creative and free PowerPoint templates. It has more than a dozen categories to navigate from doctors, business, nature, educational, weddings, architectural, Christmas, travel and time. You can search for them by popularity, color, or label. Templates are regular and animated, and are frequently added or updated. They are also easy to download as you get the file immediately on your computer, plus you get to see a screenshot of what you will see on your slide cover. There is no rating system though, and most templates are very basic, but at least you have a wide variety to choose from. Behance Slide Template Collection Behance is a showcase site for creatives around the world, so you're bound to find some really professionally designed, extremely artistic and engaging slide templates. The best part is that you can get creative PowerPoint templates, download them for free, and use them with powerpoint presentation. You can use the search filter to find some of the best templates you can use using variables, such as user ratings, most highly regarded ones, or categories such as infographics or business presentation, among others. A preview of the template slide designs is also available so you can see what your cover will look like before downloading it. If you plan to get Behance templates though, you will also need access to Illustrator or Photoshop. PowerPoint Styles PowerPoint Styles also offers free PowerPoint templates and you can find one that suits your needs by sorting the list according to the most viewed, recently added or top downloaded templates. It also provides categories and tags to help you find general templates, or cartoons, abstracts, social, textures, telecommunications and other types of templates. Each template has a screenshot so you can get a look at what the actual layout looks like, and are downloaded as PowerPoint files that make it easy to add to your presentation. You can also select any color you want to see templates with your favorite as the primary color, which is good if you are building a slide cover for your brand. The main drawback of this website are ads on the site that make it difficult to find the right download button for the template you want. Showeet Showeet displays its free PowerPoint templates with lots of information about each of them, and you can browse the popular ones for labels like fun, business, pattern and more. Each download page also comes with preview images, plus instructions and tips on how to use the template and Interactive. They are also updated and added from time to time, but should follow them on social media or subscribe by RSS for updates on their latest template designs. The main drawback is that each template is stored in a ZIP file, so you must extract the files before using them in the presentation. Google Google Slides slides templates are smart and i so you can use them when you have close presentations and you are pressed for time so you can't design your own from scratch. You do not need to fill out a registration form to use the free PowerPoint templates for this site. In addition, you get handy links that can help you if you're new to creating presentations in Google Slides or haven't used it in a long time. Carnival Slides For low budget projects, Slides Carnival is a great website to get free templates from PowerPoint and Google Slides. You can use topic-based menus on your site to search for templates, browse the latest topics, type a keyword in the search bar, or sort through well-defined categories. The site also offers supporting material with information explaining why templates work well so you can make a better decision. 24Slides This website makes finding a free PowerPoint template much easier as it is clutter-free and there is no ads. Templates are designed professionally, cleanly and easily found, as it organizes them by category, highlighted or more popular, although you can also filter them by creativity or business. You also get to see preview screenshots, which makes it easier for you to narrow down your options. You do not have to extract downloads from a ZIP folder as they are downloaded directly, and are stored in PPTX format so you can use them in your presentation. However, you need a user account to download the templates, and you have fewer categories you can look through. Free-PPT-Templates.com this website for free PowerPoint templates offers professional looking templates in categories such as music, technology, education, medicine and countries. You can filter them by choice of editor, top 10 or more popular, although their search filters are not intuitive. Another drawback with this site is that the PowerPoint templates you download are stored in files, not directly as PPTX files for easy and quick use with your presentation. Slide Hunter Slide Hunter lists its free PowerPoint templates under different topics, including strategy, education, planning, graphics, cycle, 3D, arrows and more. Some of them offer multiple screenshots so you can see what you are about to download in addition to related templates you can choose from. However, you must extract templates from a ZIP file before using them in the presentation and there is no description of content or information about the number of slides or the length of the slide show. fppt.com popular website for free PowerPoint templates has a massive collection of professional templates in different categories such as wedding, business, religious, nature and summary. You can easily find a template that matches your needs by filtering searches by category, keyword, tags, topics, or background. You can view user feedback and download counts to download pages so you can decide whether or not to want a specific template that you want. In addition, you don't need to sign up or wait for an ad before downloading it, since instantly on your device. However, some templates may be large and take some time to download, and there aren't enough screenshots to show you more information about the template you're downloading.
